

The FCC should leave our freedom of speech rights alone. we should hear what we want and the government has no right to make the choice for us